

STRIKEFORCE™

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my personal recommendation for Shamrock Promotions. Strikeforce has tried to partner with Promotions companies in the markets we hold events, and haven't had much success with it. Until recently, when we partnered with Shamrock Promotions who are in St. Louis, MO.

In 2009, Strikeforce was looking for new markets to bring Strikeforce MMA. I was recommended by colleagues in the Fight Industry to contact Shamrock Promotions. They were highly recommended for their professionalism with other organizations.

Upon working with them, we learned their high recommendations were correct, and have recreated a great working relationship with them. They delivered all requirements on time and with the professionalism we like to associate ourselves with.

Strikeforce has since partnered with Shamrock Promotions on 2 other events and we are looking towards a bright future with this partnership.

Sincerely,

Scott Coker
